

Dedicated to higher standards of performance

Our reputation for performance and responsiveness is a direct result of experienced leadership and a forward-thinking environment

Ralph F. Hints
Chairman & CEO

Ralph has more than 20 years of real estate - related management experience. His background includes responsibility as President and as Chief Financial Officer of a regional subprime lender and Chief Financial Officer and manager of both residential and commercial lending divisions of a national mortgage banking company. He earned an MBA in Finance from St. Mary's College and an undergraduate degree in Economics from the University of California at San Diego, and has completed substantial coursework towards his PhD in corporate finance.

Scott Myers
President

With more than 15 years of experience developing products and services for the mortgage banking industry, Scott's leadership and technical innovation augurs well for the company's quest to maintain its position as one of the industry's largest independent foreclosure services processing company. He has held senior-level positions with Interpraise, iOwn.com, Chicago Title, Zurich RE, and TRW-REDI. Scott received his Bachelor of Science degree from Cornell University.

Paula Padgitt
Vice President, Controller

Paula joined Standard with more than ten years accounting experience in the real estate industry. Prior to joining Standard in 1999, Paula served as Corporate Controller of a mid-sized development conglomerate for three years. Her background also includes four years' experience as an independent consultant to banks and trusts with focus on auditing records and implementing control procedures.

June Christy
Vice President, Operations

June joined Standard from First American National Default, where she was an Operations Supervisor. She has 25 years of foreclosure-related work experience, which includes performing the duties of a vice president of operations for Trustee's Assistance Corp., a West coast posting and publishing company, and branch manager and trustee sales officer for TD Service Company, a regional foreclosure Trustee.

Since its inception in 1987, Standard Trust Deed has processed more than 80,000 foreclosures.

Amy Rigsby
Senior Trustee Sale Officer

Amy has been involved in all aspects of Standard's foreclosure operations for more than 15 years. She has worked her way up through the company holding several supervisory positions in the Assignment, Release and Research Departments. More recently, Amy has been a Trustee Sale Officer (TSO) for more than five years and Senior TSO for two. In addition, she is Standard's operational representative for the United Trustee Association (UTA) and the California Mortgage Bankers Association (CMBA).